

B.A. English Programme for Chinese Students

The course helps the Chinese students to learn the English language and acquire a better understanding of English Literature.

Duration: 1 year full time (2 semesters without Project)

Intake: Only one batch per year, every year in the month of July/August

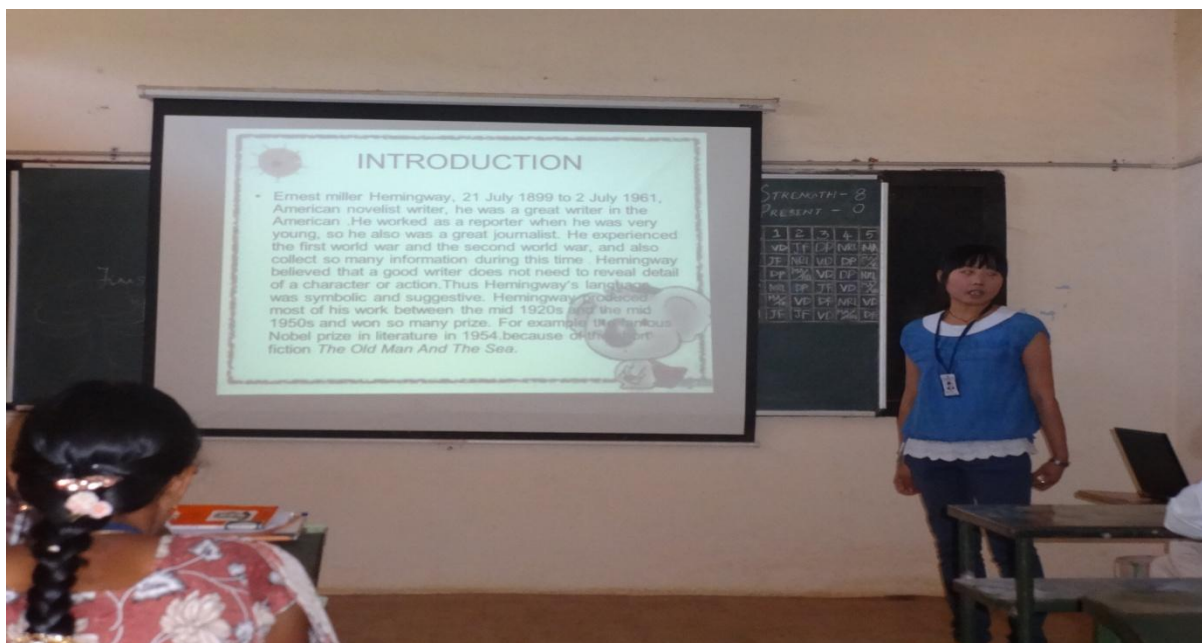

Entry Requirements: A three - year diploma with English as main subject from any recognised university in China.

I Semester

Social History of England and Literary forms to get an overall understanding of the historical and social cultures prevailing through the ages and terms used in Literature.

Prose and Fiction to get a better outlook of Literature.

Students are taught Basic Grammar to help them understand the techniques applied in grammar.

II Semester

History of English Literature to get an overall understanding of the historical and social cultures prevailing through the ages

Poetry and Drama to understand the technique and new meanings in the works.

Students are taught Functional Grammar to enable them understand and speak without grammatical mistakes.

Career Opportunities

Teaching in schools

Spoken English Trainers

Translators

Further studies

The students with B.A. English Programme for Chinese Students are eligible for M.A. English