NAAC Sponsored National Level Seminar on

Evaluation Reforms for Quality Education in Higher Education Institutions

PROFILE OF THE INSTITUTION

Situated in a serene and salubrious locale at Sullur adjoining the Coimbatore – Palladam Highway, enshrined amidst endearing greenery and eco-friendly ambience, the Rathnavel Subramaniam College of Arts and Science is the renowned citadel and centre for learning. Heralded as the first self-financing college to be setup under Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, it was founded on 31st October 1986. Over the past two decades, it has grown steadily and exuberantly to become the biggest self-financing college with a strength around 4400 students, 207 teaching faculties, 59 administrative and 30 basic staff. The Institution offers 19 UG courses and 14 PG courses apart from 8 M.Phil and 7 Ph.D programmes (both full time and part time). The College offers B.A. English Literature (one year programme) and B.Sc Computer Science (one year programme) for Chinese students. The wide range of academic programmes offered is relevant to the present times reflecting the demands of the young generation. The College was accorded autonomous status in September 2004 by UGC and was reaccredited by NAAC in 2014 with A GRADE status with 3.14 CGPA out of 4.

The College has ventured to mould academically alert, morally sound, spiritedly skilled and socially committed students. The reasonable fee structure, special fee concessions, Government scholarships, quality-oriented, student-centered an updated curriculum based on present day needs, career-oriented programmes, courses to perfect soft skills, consistent monitoring of attendance and academic performance of students through counseling, adequate extracurricular amenities and the positive placement potential have contributed immensely to the popularity of the college, drawing students from far and near. To be precise the college, endowed with qualified and dedicated band of teaching faculty, is in possession of qualities attributed to make learning really a pleasure to be experienced and enjoyed.
